Cap. 46:03

3. The principal object of this Act is to make provision for the enhancement of the safety, soundness and prudent management of insurers and other persons involved in the insurance industry in Malawi with the aim of protecting the interests of insurance policyholders and ensuring the highest standard of conduct of business of insurance companies, brokers and agents.

Principal Object of this Act

4. This Act shall apply to the insurance industry in addition to the Financial Services Act, 2009.

Application of the Financial Services Act
Act No. . . . of 2009

Licensing and registration
procedures
Act No. . . . of 2009

5. The provisions relating to licensing and registration applications contained in the Financial Services Act, 2009, shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Act.

PART II—INSURERS

Categories and classes of insurance

6.—(1) Insurance business in Malawi shall be categorized into the following—

- (a) Life insurance; and
- (b) General insurance.

(2) The Registrar shall issue directives to divide each category into classes and each class may be divided further into sub-classes.

Insurers to be licensed

7.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), no person shall carry on insurance business in Malawi unless he is licensed as an insurer in the category of insurance business carried on by him.

(2) Nothing contained in subsection (1) shall apply to the carrying on of business by a person whose licence as an insurer in a class of insurance business has been cancelled relating to policies in that class of insurance business which were issued by him before the date of the cancellation of his licence as an insurer in that class of insurance business.

(3) No person shall—

(a) without the approval of the Registrar, apply to his business or undertaking a name or description which includes the words “assure” or any derivative thereof, unless he is an insurer in whatever class of insurance business; or

(b) perform any act which indicates that he carries on or is authorized to carry on any class of insurance business, unless he is an insurer licensed to carry on that class of insurance business.

(4) Any person who contravenes subsections (1) and (3) commits an offence and upon conviction shall be liable to a fine of ten million Kwacha (K10,000,000) and to imprisonment for four (4) years, or, if the offender is not a natural person the provisions of the Financial Services Act, 2009, shall apply.

Act No. . . . of 2009

Registration
criteria

8.—(1) If the Registrar is satisfied—

(a) that the applicant for a licence as an insurer, other than as an external reinsurer, is a company incorporated under the Companies Act;

(b) that the applicant, if licensed, shall not conduct any business other than that for which it has been licensed;

Cap. 46:03

(c) that the applicant has entered into or undertakes to enter into a reinsurance agreement with a reinsurer acceptable to the Registrar;

(d) that the applicant is not disqualified under section 9 to be licensed as an insurer in the class of insurance business with respect to which the application is made; and

(e) in the case of an applicant who is a new insurer, that the category of insurance business with respect to which the application is made shall be carried on by the applicant in accordance with sound insurance principles, the Registrar may, licence the applicant, as an insurer in the category of insurance business with respect to which an application for a licence is made and the Registrar shall notify the applicant in writing of his decision within ninety (90) days of the receipt of a complete application.

(2) The Registrar shall not license a person to carry out both life insurance business and general insurance business.

(3) Without limiting the matters that the Registrar may take into account in determining an application for a licence under this Part, the Registrar shall pay particular attention to—

(a) the nature and sufficiency of financial resources of the applicant;

(b) the soundness and feasibility of the applicant's plans for the future conduct of the insurer's business;

(c) the business record and experience of the applicant;

(d) whether the persons who shall operate the business are fit and proper persons, regarding their qualifications, character, competence and experience in managing financial institutions; and

(e) whether the establishment of the business is or is not contrary to the public interest in Malawi.

9.—(1) Without limiting the power of the Registrar to refuse to grant an application for a licence under this Part, the Registrar shall not grant an application for a licence under this Part if it appears to the Registrar that—

(a) it would be contrary to the public interest or policyholders' interests to do so;

(b) the name under which the applicant desires to be licensed is identical with the name of another insurer or so nearly resembles its name as likely to be mistaken for it, unless that insurer is being

Reasons for rejecting an application
for a licence

or is to be wound-up or dissolved or, has ceased to carry on insurance business in Malawi as the case may be, and consents to the licence of the applicant under the name in question;

(c) the applicant's margin of solvency as defined in section 13, is not sufficient for the purposes of the category or classes of insurance business as the case may be, for which an application is made;

(d) if the applicant is a corporate body with share capital, the applicant does not comply with the requirements of Registrar's directive as to capital and reserves.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (b) an applicant who carries on, outside Malawi, a category of insurance business other than or those with respect to which an application for a licence is made shall be treated as if he had applied for a licence as an insurer both in the category of insurance business with respect to which his application for a licence is made and in the category of insurance business carried on by him outside Malawi.

(3) The Registrar shall inform an applicant of his decision not to licence the applicant as an insurer within ninety (90) days from receipt of a complete application.

Commencement of business

10. No insurer shall commence his business until the Registrar has approved the commencement, which the Registrar shall not do unless satisfied that—

(a) the meeting of shareholders has been duly held and other legal formalities regarding the organization of the business have been complied with;

(b) the insurer has complied with the requirements of the Registrar's directives regarding capital and reserves;

(c) the insurer has entered into a reinsurance agreement with a reinsurer, acceptable to the Registrar;

(d) the external reinsurer has on deposit an amount acceptable to the Registrar;

(e) the expenses of incorporation and organization to be borne by the company are reasonable; and

(f) all other provisions of this Act and other relevant financial services laws have been complied with.

Suspension and revocation of licences
Act No. . . . of 2009

11.—(1) Without limiting the power of the Registrar under the Financial Services Act, 2009, to suspend or revoke a licence, the Registrar may suspend or revoke the licence of an insurer on the grounds that—

(a) the insurer is disqualified under section 9 to be licensed as an insurer in the category of insurance business with respect to which he is licensed;

(b) a category of insurance business with respect to which the insurer is licensed or any other category of insurance business carried on outside Malawi by the insurer, is not being carried on by the insurer in accordance with sound insurance principles;

(c) the insurer has failed to comply with any insurance law of a country outside Malawi applying to the insurer; or

(d) it is contrary to the interest of the public or policyholders in Malawi for the said licence to continue in force.

12.—(1) The Registrar shall revoke the licence of an insurer if he is satisfied that the insurer has ceased to carry on insurance business in Malawi.

Revocation of licence on ceasing to carry on business

(2) Where the Registrar revokes the licence of an insurer, the Registrar shall do so after satisfying himself that the insurer has met the requirements of section 60.

13. An insurer shall be treated as having a margin of solvency sufficient for the purposes of carrying on any class of insurance business if the insurer meets solvency conditions as set out in the Registrar's directives.

Margin of solvency sufficient for the purposes of carrying on insurance business

PART III—PROVISIONS GOVERNING THE CARRYING ON OF INSURANCE BUSINESS BY INSURERS

14. This Part applies to insurers.

Application of Part III

15.—(1) An insurer shall establish a principal office in Malawi and shall appoint a principal officer in Malawi:

Insurers to maintain principal office and appoint principal officer

Provided that the appointment of the principal officer shall be subject to prior approval of the Registrar in terms of fit and proper person requirements as determined in the Registrar's directives.

(2) Where an insurer has established a principal office, the insurer shall notify the Registrar in writing where the office is situated.

(3) If an insurer changes the place of his principal office in Malawi or closes the office or appoints a new principal officer, the insurer shall, within twenty-one (21) days of such change, closure or new appointment, give notice thereof to the Registrar in writing.

(4) An insurer shall inform the Registrar in writing of the name and address of every director and executive officer and shall keep such information current by notifying the Registrar of any changes or additions or deletions with respect to the names and addresses of such persons as specified in the Registrar's directives.

Reinsurance

16.—(1) An insurer may enter into an agreement to reinsure risks undertaken by it with a reinsurer of adequate standing, taking into account the considerations of safety and soundness when such an agreement is made in the ordinary course of business.

Act No. . . . of 2009

(2) Without limiting the Registrar's powers under the Financial Services Act, 2009, to issue Registrar's directives, and without limiting the Registrar's power under that Act to give direction to an insurer, the Registrar's directives or direction from the Registrar may specify the conditions under which reinsurance contracts may be entered into, and the extent to which an insurer may cause itself to be reinsured.

Reinsurance
contracts of insurers

17.—(1) No life insurer shall enter into a contract of reinsurance against any liability in respect of his life insurance business in Malawi otherwise than with a life reinsurer.

(2) No general insurer shall enter into a contract of reinsurance against any liability in respect of his general insurance business in Malawi otherwise than with a general reinsurer.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply to a contract of reinsurance against any liability in respect of insurance business in Malawi the parties to which and the terms of which have been approved in writing by the Registrar.

Insurance
business to be placed within Malawi

18. No insurer, insurance broker, insurance agent or any other person shall place insurance business, other than reinsurance business, outside Malawi unless it is approved in writing by the Registrar.

Annual financial statements

19.—(1) The directors of an insurer shall place before the shareholders at every annual meeting—

(a) comparative annual consolidated financial statements for the current year and the immediately preceding year, if any;

(b) the annual financial statements that shall contain—

(i) a balance sheet as at the end of the financial year;

(ii) a statement of profit and loss for the financial year;

(iii) a statement of change of financial position for the financial year;

(iv) a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for the financial year;

(v) a list of subsidiaries of the insurer with their addresses and percentage ownership of shares of the subsidiary by the insurer;

(vi) the report of the auditor;

(vii) the report of the actuary; if applicable; and

(viii) a description of the roles of the auditor and the actuary in the preparation and audit of financial statements.

(2) The directors shall approve the annual financial statements and their approval shall be evidenced by the signatures of the chief executive officer and one other director.

20. If required by the shareholders and policyholders, an external auditor of an insurer shall audit a report on any financial statements presented to them by the Board of Directors and the external auditor shall express an opinion on the fair presentation of the financial statements.

Request for audit by shareholders and policyholders

21. An external reinsurer shall have the financial statements of its reinsurance business in Malawi audited by the auditors of the head office of the external reinsurer, and the auditors shall express an opinion on the fair presentation of the financial statements using the auditing and accounting standards applicable in the country of the head office.

Audit for
reinsurer

22.—(1) Where the Registrar is of the opinion that actuarial review of an insurer's business is warranted, or that such review is warranted for all companies undertaking a particular class of insurance business, the Registrar may require an insurer to appoint an actuary to value, in accordance with the Registrar's directives, the insurer's liabilities either at a point in time or at regular intervals.

Appointment of an actuary

(2) An actuary appointed under this section shall comply with the provisions contained in section 25 of this Act, as if it applied to this section.

PART IV—SPECIAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING THE CARRYING ON OF LIFE INSURANCE BUSINESS BY INSURERS

23. This Part shall apply to life insurers.

Application
of Part IV

24.—(1) A life insurer who carries on, in addition to his life insurance business, any other businesses, whether insurance business or otherwise, shall maintain separate books of accounts for all of his life insurance business in accordance with the Registrar's directives.

Life insurers carrying on business other than life insurance
business

(2) The receipts and payments in respect of the life insurance business of a life insurer shall be carried to and form part of the life insurance funds.

(3) The life insurance funds of a life insurer referred to in subsection (2) shall be as absolutely the security of the owners of the life policies issued by the life insurer as though it belonged to a life insurer carrying on no other business than life insurance business.

(4) Payments from the life insurance funds of a life insurer referred to in subsection (2) which would not be made if the business of the life insurer were only that of life insurance, and the life insurance funds shall not be applied directly or indirectly to any purposes other than those of life insurance.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall preclude a life insurer referred to in subsection (1) from investing the life insurance funds in the same investments as any other funds.

(6) Where the life insurer has invested life insurance funds in the same investments as other funds, the life insurer shall calculate the portion of any such investments belonging to the life funds, and record the amount attributable to the life funds in the books of accounts of the life insurance funds.

Actuaries of life insurers

25.—(1) A life insurer shall appoint an actuary for a specific duration and such an appointment shall be subject to approval by the Registrar.

(2) An individual shall be qualified to be the actuary of a life insurer if he is a member of an institute, society or association of actuaries acceptable to the Registrar.

(3) The Board of Directors may revoke the appointment of an actuary, in which case it shall notify the Registrar in writing immediately.

(4) An actuary whose appointment is revoked or who resigns shall submit to the Board of Directors of an insurer and the Registrar a written statement of the circumstances and reasons why he resigned or why, in the actuary's opinion, his appointment was revoked.

(5) Where an actuary resigns or his appointment is revoked, or the Registrar withholds the approval of his appointment, the Board of Directors shall appoint another actuary as soon as possible.

(6) The actuary shall value, in accordance with Registrar's directives, the actuarial and other policy liabilities as at the end of the financial year and the Registrar may require the actuary to carry out a valuation in a specific area, in which case the expenses incurred shall be paid by the insurer.

(7) At the request of the actuary, the present or former Directors, officers or employees of a company shall provide him with access to the company's records as well as provide him with other information and explanations as are, in the opinion of the actuary, necessary to perform his duties.

(8) A life insurer shall ensure that an actuary so appointed shall within ninety (90) days from the end of the financial year of the insurer, make a report, in the prescribed form under the Registrar's directives, on the valuations made and in his report, the actuary shall state whether, in his opinion, the annual financial statements present fairly the results of his valuations.

(9) Where the Registrar is of the opinion that an actuary other than the actuary of the insurer should value the actuarial and other policy liabilities of the insurer or conduct a valuation in a specific area, he may appoint another actuary and the expenses incurred in this respect shall be payable by the insurer.

(10) The actuary shall report in writing to the chief executive officer any matters that have come to his attention that, in his opinion, have material adverse effect on the financial condition of the insurer and require rectification and he shall forthwith provide a copy of his report to the Board of Directors and to the Registrar.

(11) Where an insurer is a subsidiary of a foreign insurance company and the foreign insurance company furnishes to the appropriate authority in the country in which its head office is located any report or statement reflecting the results of an actuarial investigation of the whole or part of its insurance business, it shall furnish a copy of such report or statement to the Registrar.

26. If the assets which a life insurer holds in its life insurance funds in respect of its liabilities to policyholders include shares in its holding company—

(a) those shares shall be deemed, for the purpose of the Companies Act, to be held by the insurer as trustee for the benefit of the owners of the policies to which the liabilities relate;

(b) those shares shall only be held subject to such limitations and conditions as the Registrar may determine; and

Assets of insurer may include shares in holding company

Cap. 46:03

(c) the insurer shall not have the right to vote at meetings of the company in which it holds such shares or at meetings of any particular class of members of that company.

PART V—LICENSING OF INSURANCE BROKERS

Insurance
brokers to be licensed

27.—(1) (a) No person shall carry on the business of an insurance broker in Malawi unless that person is licensed as an insurance broker.

(b) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) (a) commits an offence and upon conviction shall be liable to a fine of five million Kwacha (K5,000,000) and to four (4) years imprisonment, or, if the offender is not a natural person, then provisions of the Financial Services Act, 2009, shall apply.

Act No. ... of 2009

Act No. ... of 2009

(2) If an application is made in accordance with the Financial Services Act for a licence as an insurance broker, the Registrar may grant the licence if the applicant—

(a) holds professional insurance qualification recognized by the Insurance Institute of Malawi and acceptable to the Registrar, or has a minimum of five (5) years experience in a managerial position in the insurance industry and a satisfactory record in such employment;

(b) does not own shares of an insurer or does not have financial interest in an insurer of more than five per cent (5%) or no insurer or an officer of the insurer owns shares or has financial interest in the applicant of more than five per cent (5%);

(c) is not seeking to be licensed under a name identical or so nearly identical to the name of a person already licensed under this Act likely to be mistaken for it;

(d) is otherwise a fit and proper person to be licensed as an insurance broker in accordance with the Registrar's directives;

(e) has not entered into an agreement relating to the preferential offer of insurance business with any person carrying on insurance so as to impair his impartiality in placing insurance business;

(f) has secured appointment as a broker by not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of insurers.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (2), if the Registrar is of the opinion that it would not be in the public interest or policyholders' interests to approve an application for a licence as an insurance broker, the Registrar shall refuse to grant the licence.

(4) The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, revise the percentages referred to in paragraphs 2 (b) and 2 (f).

28.—(1) Every insurance broker shall effect and maintain professional indemnity and fidelity insurance policies with such limits of liability as may be prescribed in the directives of the Registrar.

Insurance brokers to maintain professional indemnity and fidelity insurance policies

(2) Every policy of insurance of the type referred to in subsection (1) shall be held with an insurer and shall be for no lesser sum than referred to in subsection (1).

29.—(1) When a broker's appointment by an insurer is terminated, the insurer shall immediately notify the Registrar about the termination and thereupon inform the general public through a notice in at least two (2) newspapers of wide circulation.

Termination of an insurance broker's appointment

(2) An insurance broker whose appointment by an insurer is terminated shall immediately cease to sell insurance policies on behalf of that insurer.

(3) Any violation of subsection (2) constitutes an offence and upon conviction the insurance broker shall be liable to a fine of five million Kwacha (K5,000,000) and to four (4) years imprisonment, or, if the offender is not a natural person, then provisions of the Financial Services Act, 2009, shall apply.

Act No. . . . of 2009

(4) The Registrar shall notify the insurance broker in writing that he intends to cancel the insurance brokers' licence as an insurance broker and of his reasons therefor, if at any time the Registrar is satisfied that a situation has arisen that if the insurance broker was an applicant for a licence under this Act, he would not be qualified to be licensed.

30. Notwithstanding provisions of the Financial Services Act, 2009, the Registrar shall not revoke an insurance broker's licence at the request of the broker unless satisfied that all liabilities of the broker in respect of his business are met or other provision is made for them by means acceptable to the Registrar.

Revocation of licence at the request of an insurance broker, etc.
Act No. . . . of 2009

31. All funds received or receivable by an insurance broker in the course of business on behalf of insurers from members of the public shall be treated as trust funds and no insurance broker shall assign, pledge or in any way charge the trust funds.

Trust funds

32. Without limiting the Registrar's powers under the Financial Services Act to issue Registrar's directives, the Registrar's directives may make provision with respect to trust funds under section 31 and the keeping of trust accounts by insurance brokers.

Directives for insurance brokers

Act No. ... of 2009

(2) Notwithstanding provisions of the Financial Services Act, 2009, the Registrar shall not revoke or suspend the licence of an insurance agent at the request of the insurance agent unless satisfied that all liabilities of the agent are met or other appropriate arrangements are made.

Act No. ... of 2009

PART VIII—COLLECTION OF PREMIUMS BY BROKERS

45. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires—

“prescribed credit period” means the period that starts—

(a) in the case of a new policy, at the inception date of the policy;

(b) in the case of an existing policy which has been renewed, at the renewal date of the policy; and

(c) in the case of a policy endorsement and a declaration under an open cover policy, on the first day of the month following the date upon which documentation is issued by the insurer to the policyholder concerned, and ends as specified in the agreement with the insurer.

Interpretation of terms in Part VIII

Collection of premiums

46.—(1) An insurance broker or an insurance agent is responsible for the collection of premiums on behalf of an insurer and when he so collects the premiums he shall—

(a) close off his records of premium receipts within the prescribed credit period;

(b) pay the amount of such premiums to the insurer within that period and in any case not later than thirty (30) days after receipt of the premium from the policyholder;

(c) simultaneously furnish the insurer with a detailed payment bordereau in respect of payment under paragraph (b);

(2) Payment of premium by policyholder under his insurance to an agent or broker shall be deemed to be specific performance under the policy.

(3) Registrar's directives may, in the interest of policyholders, insurers or intermediaries, prescribe different or additional requirements for the receipt of, retention of, or dealing with moneys in respect of premiums and, to the extent of any inconsistency between the other provisions of this section and the provisions of the Registrar's directives issued for this section, the provisions of the Registrar's directives shall prevail.

Licensing loss assessors/adjustors and claims settling agents
Act No. . . . of 2009

48. If an application is made in accordance with the Financial Services Act for a licence to carry on the business of loss assessor/adjustor or claims settling agent the Registrar may grant the licence if the applicant—

(a) holds reasonable educational and professional qualifications and has a minimum of five (5) years of relevant experience with satisfactory record of performance;

(b) is not seeking to be licensed under a name that closely resembles the name of an existing loss assessor/adjustor or claims settling agent as to be likely mistaken for it;

(c) has entered into a valid working arrangement with an insurer or a number of insurers;

(d) has not been declared insolvent or bankrupt under the laws of any country or made arrangement with or assignment to his creditors which has not been set aside;

(e) has not been convicted by any court of an offence involving dishonesty and does not otherwise have a criminal record; and

(f) an insurer has confirmed in writing to the Registrar that he has appointed the applicant as a loss assessor/adjustor or claims settling agent.

PART X—INVESTMENTS, LOANS AND OWNERSHIP

49. The board of directors of an insurer shall establish and monitor, and an insurer shall implement investment and lending policies, standards and processes that a reasonable and prudent person would apply in respect of investments and loans to avoid undue risk of loss and obtain a reasonable return.

Investments
and lending policies

50.—(1) Except as provided in the directives, an insurer shall not, without prior written approval of the Registrar, and subject to such terms and conditions as the Registrar may impose—

Approval of investments

(a) acquire more than ten (10) per cent of the outstanding voting share capital of a body corporate or ten (10) per cent of beneficial interest in an unincorporated entity, the aggregate value of all such shares and beneficial interest not to exceed seventy-five per cent (75%) of the actuarial liabilities of the insurer; or

(b) purchase or otherwise acquire interest in real property or make an improvement to any real property if the aggregate value of all interests exceeds—

(i) in case of life insurer, twenty-five per cent (25%) of its actuarial liabilities; and

(ii) in case of general insurer ten per cent (10%) of its total assets.

(2) If the Registrar fails to respond to an insurer's request for approval of his investment within twenty-one (21) days after the insurer provides all information required by the Registrar, the insurer may proceed with his investment without the Registrar's approval.

51. Notwithstanding section 49, where an insurer has made a loan to an entity and a default has occurred, the insurer may acquire all or any of the ownership interest in the entity or its affiliates:

Acquiring ownership interest

Provided that the insurer undertakes to the Registrar to do all things necessary to ensure that it divests itself of the ownership interest within two (2) years.

Investment of assets

52. Subject to provisions of this Act, the articles of association of an insurer and any other reasonable constraints imposed on the insurer by other rules in respect of the manner in which it may invest its assets, the assets of the insurer shall be invested in Malawi with sufficient regard to the consideration of liquidity, return and security.

Prudential limits

53. The Registrar may by directives, prescribe prudential limits for consumer and commercial lending by insurers under the size of loans and aggregate exposure of an insurer to different types of lending, stated as a percentage of its local assets.

Disposal of loans and investments

54. The Registrar may, by order, direct an insurer to dispose of, within such period as the Registrar considers reasonable, any loan or investment made or acquired in contravention of this Act and directives.

Restriction of control

55.—(1) No person or entity controlled by a person, shall without the approval of the Registrar, acquire shares of an insurer or acquire control of any entity that holds shares of the insurer, if, in the opinion of the Registrar, the acquisition would cause the person to have significant interest in any class of shares of the insurer or increase the already existing significant interest.

(2) Where as a result of an amalgamation, merger or reorganization, the emerging entity would have a significant interest in a class of shares of an insurer, such a transaction, shall be deemed to be an acquisition of significant interest in that class of shares of the insurer and require the approval of the Registrar.

(3) Any arrangement or agreement between an insurer and another person that affects in a significant manner the voting power or management control of the insurer, shall require prior written approval of the Registrar.

Amalgamation or transfer of insurance
business

Act No. . . . of 2009

56.—(1) Notwithstanding provisions of the Financial Services Act, 2009, the Registrar shall not approve a transfer or amalgamation of the business of an insurer if it appears to him that one fifth ($\frac{1}{5}$) or more of the policyholders insured by any of the insurers involved dissent from the amalgamation or transfer.

PART XI—WINDING-UP OF INSURANCE COMPANIES

Companies
